We would like to invite you to join the Australia-Germany Research Network (AGRN), a joint initiative by the German Embassy in Canberra and the Australian Embassy in Berlin. The interactive network is hosted on the social media platform for professionals, LinkedIn https://www.linkedin.com/groups/13531832. AGRN publishes a quarterly e-newsletter; to subscribe just send an Email to info.berlin@dfat.gov.au. The group has nearly 500 members from academia, government and industry, and we would love for you to join!

What is the purpose of AGRN?

This group is dedicated to Australian researchers, entrepreneurs and innovators interested in collaborating with Germany and vice versa. It offers the opportunity to connect with like-minded colleagues in Germany and Australia, promote your research or company, find new collaborators, identify funding opportunities and business partners, and stay informed about all things happening in the bilateral Australian-German research and innovation space. It is open to all disciplines including natural sciences, engineering, humanities, political and social sciences, as well as stakeholders from industry, government, funding agencies and other.

Why should you join?

This group will allow you to:

- promote events among a target network of professionals with interest and expertise in German-Australian research and innovation;
- share your research news and other information on bilateral opportunities including job postings and funding; and
- connect with academics, industry, and government representatives who have a common interest in Australian-German linkages.

Also, Australian-German events will be advertised on this site first: it is the quickest way to find out what is happening when and where both in Australia and Germany, and the best way to stay informed. Don't miss out!
