

School of History Annual Thesis Proposal Review Presentation Day

9am-12pm, 31 October, RSSS Auditorium

The TPR Presentation Day is an annual event in the School of History for the first year HDR student presentations of their thesis proposals.

Panel members should attend their students' sessions, but all members of the School of History are strongly encouraged to support these students at this critical juncture in their studies.

Friends, family and well-wishers are also welcome to join us to celebrate this milestone, in person or via zoom. <https://anu.zoom.us/j/89268676815?pwd=c2NzUE5nVlFzZGNZaUtVUHN0aFRPdz09>

Program

9.00am Welcome – Prof Martin Thomas, HDR Convenor

9.10am Session 1

War! What is it ... For?: How Ordinary Homefront Australians Found Meaning in the Second World War

Aaron Marston-Pattison

Transportee Travellers: The Convicts who left Australia

Matthew Cunneen

Madness, Melancholia, Nostalgia: British Naval Masculinity and Emotion of the French Wars and their Aftermath

Matilda Hatcher

10.40am Morning Tea

11.00am Session 2 – Chair, Dr Laura Rademaker

Indigenous Engagement with Australia's Soldier Settlement Schemes, 1915-1939

Rachel Caines

The Expression of Identity Within Colonial-Era Burial Grounds on the Lime Stone Plains

Timothy Adams

12.00pm Thanks and close - Prof Carolyn Strange, Head of School of History

12.05pm Lunch in RSSS Foyer