Conference: EU trade policy and Brexit

21 June 2022, 9:30-17:00 CEST

at Maastricht University's Brussels Campus (Montgomery) and online

The ANU Centre of European Studies, in collaboration with the European Centre for International Political Economy (ECIPE), invites you to participate in the conference EU Trade Policy and Brexit on 21 June 2022 at Maastricht University's Brussels Campus (Montgomery) and online.

Zoom link: <https://anu.zoom.us/j/86941906992?pwd=Sm9FWExybUFGcUlpNEloQ3JCSVprZz09>

The conference seeks to reflect upon the following questions:

- How has Brexit affected EU trade negotiations with third countries? Have perceptions of the EU changed?
- How has the dynamic of UK-EU Brexit negotiations impacted negotiations and relations with other third countries?
- How could we best go about researching these types of questions?
- To what extent does Brexit alter EU trade policy? And the EU's market power and its ability to leverage it?
- How do the differences in UK and EU approaches to trade policy and negotiations affect negotiations with third parties?
- How does the UK engage as third party with EU trade policy, and what are the prospects for this relationship in the future (e.g. potential for managing regulatory divergence, etc.)?

The conference is part of the ANUCES Jean Monnet Project 'Third Country Engagement with EU Trade Policy' which aims to improve understanding of trade implications for EU third countries, including Australia and countries in the Asia-Pacific region.
