

EP Thompson at 100: History, Law, Politics

This event is organised by the Network for Law Arts and Humanities (ANU College of Law) and History Co-Lab (ANU School of History).

Program

|          |   |
|----------|---|
| 9.00 am  | WelcomeDes Manderson (ANU)  |
| 9.10 am  | Session AChair: Frank Bongiorno, ANUAnn Curthoys (University of Sydney)E.P. Thompson and Australia: a one-sided love storyMartin Krygier (UNSW)Well-Tempered Power: 'A Cultural Achievement of Universal Significance'Discussant: Desmond Manderson (ANU)Will Christie (ANU)E.P. Thompson and the Ballad of English LiteratureIain McCalman (ANU)Edward Thompson and the Radical Underworld |
| 11.30 am | Morning tea   |
| 11.50 am | Session BChair: Paul PickeringTom Richardson (UNSW)The Death or Glory Boys: E.P. Thompson, his brother Frank, and the Second World WarMargaret Thornton (ANU)E.P. Thompson and the Business UniversityRhianne Grieve (ANU)'A preposterous thinker': Robert Owen's place in E.P. Thompson's Making of the English Working ClassWanshu Cong (ANU)International Law and Unqualified Human Good     |
| 1.35 pm  | Closing RemarksPaul Pickering (Australian Studies Institute, ANU)   |
| 1.50 pm  | Lunch   |