

Australian National University

Public Lecture Series:
2nd Roundtable Discussion

Middle East Update No.2: US/ Israel War on Iran

Regional & Global Players and the Global Economy

A month on, multiple indicators point to how the US/ Israel War on Iran represents not a regional confrontation but a global structural shock with serious military, economic and geopolitical implications. Across the region but particularly in Iran and Lebanon, there has been:

- Immense damage to infrastructure
- A rising death toll
- Mass civilian displacement,
- Destruction of the environment & historical heritage
- Severe immediate global economic shocks

This 2nd roundtable - as part of CAIS' highly popular Middle East Update series - will provide key insights about how the war is already reshaping assumptions about markets, power and the global order.

Thursday 9th April 5-6.30pm

in person at CAIS & online via Humanitix

<https://shorturl.at/WYI33>

Join us to hear from this panel of experts on the Middle East, Russia, and Central Asia who will shed light on the impact of the US/Israel War on global economy, energy markets, regional players such as the Gulf States, Turkey, Russia and Central Asia.

Panellists

Prof Abdullah Baabood (Waseda University)

A/Prof Zaynab El Bernoussi (Global Studies University, UAE)

Prof Richard Foltz (University of Concordia & CAIS Visiting Fellow)

Dr Jessie Moritz (CAIS, ANU)

A/Prof Kirill Nourzhanov (CAIS, ANU)

Prof Hakan Yavuz (University of Utah & CAIS Visiting Fellow)

Moderator: Prof Karima Laachir (ANU)

Queries? cais@anu.edu.au