GUIDING PRINCIPLES
A place that reflects the RSSS as a centre for world-leading research that engages with social problems to shape debates and policy agenda on a national and international scale.

RSSS IS WORLD LEADING...

A place that is inherently multi-disciplinary, with rigorous disciplinary foundations.

DISCIPLINE BASED, CENTRE FOCUSED...

A place for original, individual thought, and a place for discourse, serendipity and ritual.

COLLABORATION THROUGH SERENDIPITY AND RITUAL...

A place that is collegial and tranquil, enticing people to spend time at ANU and a global base for RSSS staff, that welcomes visitors.

A PLACE THAT IS WELCOMING AND KNOWN...

A place that has gravitas, but invites the curious. A place for discussion and debate, a meeting place between academics, public officials and the interested citizen.

THE IDEAS EXCHANGE...

A place that is physically comfortable to be in, is person centric, and connected to its environment.

A PLACE WHERE YOU WANT TO BE...

A place that nurtures the next generation of academic, leveraging the best of the old and integrating the best of the new ways of learning, to create innovative and original thinkers.
